Exploring the Future of Physical Therapy Symposium

*Understanding the Impact of Health Care Reform, Establishing Strategies to Foster Translational
Research, and Identifying the Collaborative Roles of Physical Therapy to Address Societal Health Care Needs*

Join physical therapy leaders in a creative and visionary discussion to explore strategies to address changes in healthcare reform, practice, education and research.

Mission:

To convene a unique symposium to discuss creative and innovative strategies to explore future opportunities of physical therapy practice through a collaborative environment of rehabilitation leaders integrating findings from the recent Physical Therapy and Society Summit (PASS) and the Vitalizing Practice Through Research and Research Through Practice Conference. Through active engagement of participants, recommendations will be developed to enhance the growth of the physical therapy profession in the areas of healthcare reform, clinical practice, education and research to ultimately foster integrated, innovative and collaborative responses to evolving societal health care needs.
