The Second
Interprofessional Simulation Conference
Simulation as a Tool to Promote Interprofessional Education and Practice

November 14 - 15, 2017
Emory Conference Center and Hotel
Emory University
Atlanta, Georgia 30322

Mission
The Interprofessional Simulation Conference will bring together interdisciplinary, health science educators and clinicians to promote and determine best practice, assessment measures, and techniques when using simulation as an education tool for health and medical professions students and healthcare clinicians.

Objectives
Upon completion of the conference, learners will be able to:
• Discuss the fundamentals of simulation for use in the classroom and at the bedside.
• Practice hands-on interprofessional team training.
• Demonstrate optimal interprofessional team, family, and patient-centered communication.
• Understand and implement the process for using interprofessional simulation to determine competency.
• Develop a facilitative process to perform an interprofessional team debrief.
• Identify and develop research concepts to demonstrate translation of simulation into practice.

Audience
All faculty educators within health science programs and clinicians within a healthcare setting are invited to attend, inclusive of medical physicians, physician assistants, nurses, allied health professionals, and pharmacists. CME & CEU will be awarded.

Agenda
November 14, 2017
Emory Conference Center and Hotel, Silverbell Pavilion
7:15 - 7:55 AM   Onsite registration
8:15-9:30   Session 1: Simulation Across the Continuum: Moving from student to clinician
9:45-11:00   Session 2: The Art of Debrief: Reaping the benefits of simulation
11:15-12:30 PM  Session 3: The Why of Simulation: Keeping patients and families in the center
12:30-2:30   Lunch (on your own)/Exhibitors/Poster Session
2:30-3:45   Session 4: Competency & Evaluation: Determining proficiency with simulation
4:00-5:15   Session 5: Scholarship and Discovery: Striving for excellence
5:15-5:30   Concluding Remarks, Day 1
5:45-7:00 PM  Reception/Posters/Exhibitors

November 15, 2017
Emory University, School of Medicine, Emory Center for Experiential Learning
Emory University, Neil Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing, Simulation Lab
7:15-7:45 AM  Onsite registration at assigned location
7:45-9:45  Simulation Scenario 1: Patient and family centered communication
10:00-12:00 PM  Simulation Scenario 2: Interdisciplinary medical scenario
12:25-1:30 PM  Conference Debrief & Conclusion

Tuition
Before 9/1/2017        Day 1             Day 2*             After 9/1/2017        Day 1             Day 2*
Physician               $210.00        $100.00     Physician                            $250.00             $130.00
Non-MD Professional       $165.00        $ 75.00     Non-MD Professional       $195.00             $100.00

*Day 1 must be attended in order to participate in Day 2.  Space limited for Day 2. Register early.

More Information & Registration
Website: https://www.rehabmed.emory.edu/pt/ce/courses.shtml
Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/InterprofSimConf/