The Second Interprofessional Simulation Conference

*Simulation as a Tool to Promote Interprofessional
Education and Practice*

November 14 - 15, 2017
Emory Conference Center and Hotel
Emory University
Atlanta, Georgia 30322

Mission

The 2nd Interprofessional Simulation Conference will bring together groups of health science educators and healthcare providers to promote and determine best practices and assessment techniques to improve education and healthcare delivery through the use of simulation.

Objectives

Upon completion of November 14th, learners will be able to:

- Discuss the fundamentals of simulation for use in the classroom and at the bedside.
- Demonstrate optimal interprofessional team, family, and patient-centered communication.
- Understand and implement the use of interprofessional simulation to determine competency.
- Develop a facilitative process to perform an interprofessional team debrief.
- Identify and develop research concepts to demonstrate translation of simulation into practice.

Upon completion of November 15th, learners will be able to:

- Develop tools necessary to create a simulation-based interprofessional education curriculum, and/or
- Develop tools necessary to create a collaborative practice training session.

Audience

All faculty within health science programs and clinicians are invited to attend, inclusive of medical physicians, RNs, APRNs, PAs, PTs, allied health professionals, pharmacists and chaplains.

Agenda

November 14, 2017 (8:00 AM - 7:00 PM): Emory Conference Center and Hotel, Silverbell Pavillion, Atlanta, Georgia

Welcome & Keynote

Session 1: Simulation Across the Continuum: Moving from student to clinician

Session 2: The Art of Debrief: Reaping the benefits of simulation

Session 3: The Why of Simulation: Keeping patients and families in the center

Lunch/Exhibitors/Poster Session

Session 4: Competency & Evaluation: Determining proficiency with simulation

Session 5: Scholarship and Discovery: Striving for excellence

Reception/Posters/Exhibitors

November 15, 2017 (8:00 AM - 1:30 PM): Emory University, School of Medicine & Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing, Simulation Labs
